

COMPARATIVES:

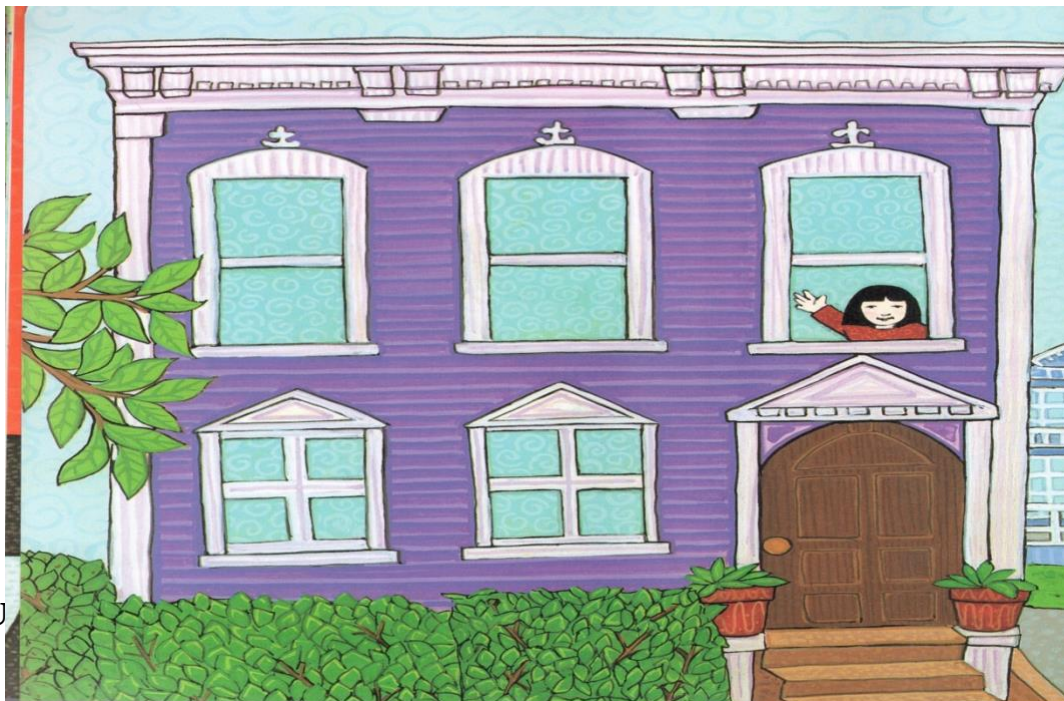

Teacher: The windows are wide.

Students: The windows are wide.

Teacher: These windows are wider.

Students: These windows are wider.

SU

Teacher: The bowl is big.
Students: The bowl is big.
Teacher: This bowl is bigger.
Students: This bowl is bigger.
Teacher: This bowl is the biggest of the three.
Students: This bowl is the biggest of the three.

GEOMETRIC CONCEPTS

Teacher: The girl is holding a round cookie and looking at a round paper lantern.
Students: The girl is holding a round cookie and looking at a round paper lantern.
Teacher: The cookie is called a 'Moon Cake'!
Students: The cookie is called a 'Moon Cake'!

Possible cross-cultural questions:

How is this bowl different from the ones you use in your homes?

What is different about this paper lantern and the ones you see in your city?

What does a radish look like?

What is tofu?

What shape is the moon? Is it the same shape in other countries?

Teacher: The girl is looking at round radish cakes and square tofu bars.

Students: The girl is looking at round radish cakes and square tofu bars.

Teacher: The cats are in a square basket.

Students: The cats are in a square basket.

Teacher: The girl is writing on rectangular paper.

Students: The girl is writing on rectangular paper.

